

KS3 History Steps

Step 9	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can confidently re-call knowledge about important people and events from the past, demonstrating exceptional knowledge and understanding.• You are aware that there are different historical sources and can confidently infer information from them. You can evaluate why some historical sources are more trustworthy than others.• You can confidently use each historical skill when evaluating knowledge on each topic accurately with additional detail.
Step 8	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can confidently re-call knowledge about important people and events from the past, demonstrating exceptional knowledge and understanding.• You are aware that there are different historical sources and can infer information from them. You are aware of why some historical sources are more trustworthy than others.• You can use each historical skill when evaluating knowledge on each topic accurately.
Step 7	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can confidently re-call knowledge about important people and events from the past, demonstrating very good knowledge and understanding.• You are aware that there are different historical sources and can confidently infer information from them about the topic.• You can use each historical skill when evaluating knowledge on each topic.
Step 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can re-call knowledge about important people and events from the past with good detail and accuracy.• You are aware that there are different historical sources and can confidently infer information from them about the topic.• You are aware of all the historical skills and can use them to explain key events.
Step 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can re-call knowledge about important people and events from the past with good detail and accuracy.• You are aware that there are different historical sources and can start to infer information from them about the topic.• You are aware of all the historical skills and can use them to explain key events.

Step 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can re-call knowledge about important people and events from the past with good detail and accuracy. • You can confidently explain what you can see and learn from historical sources about the topic you are studying. You are aware that there are different types of historical sources. • You are aware of all the historical skills and can begin to use them to explain key events.
Step 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can re-call knowledge about important people and events from the past with more detail and accuracy. • You can confidently explain what you can see and learn from historical sources about the topic you are studying. You are aware that there are different types of historical sources. • You are aware of some the historical skills and can begin to use them to explain key events.
Step 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can re-call knowledge about important people and events from the past with some detail and accuracy. • You can explain what you can see and learn from historical sources. • You are aware of some of the historical skills.
Step 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can re-call some knowledge about important people and events but this might not have much detail. • You can explain what you can see in historical sources.

Historical Skills:

- Change and continuity
- Cause and consequences
- Significance
- Interpretation
- Judgements